

424AD

In Japanese Chronology
According to sexagenary cycles,
also borrowed from the Chinese,
these 60-yr cycles of 5 12-yr
periods began in 424 AD.

424AD

In Japanese Chronology,
reckoning era is sometimes
according to sexagenary cycles,
borrowed from Chinese. These 60-day cycles of 12-yr
periods began in 424 A.D.

(Conversion table of Japanese, Chinese and Korean eras are in Transactions

of the Asiatic Society of Japan vol 37, part 2, pp 133-303 (Tokushima) 1910

AD 424

Japanese Chronology

The Japanese reckoned according to sexagenary cycles (also borrowed from the Chinese). The 60-yr cycles of five 12-yr periods began A.D. 424.

424

1912 Dates J-BK

Western Empire
JOANNES was Emper.